Guide to Giving

Springfield Foundation

For good. For ever. For all.®

Helping everyone in our community make a difference.

Philanthropy Made Easy, Flexible, and Effective

Step 1: Decide When to Give

Endowment funds can be created while a donor is alive, or through a will or trust agreement.

Step 2: Decide What to Give

Almost any kind of asset can be used to create your fund, such as cash, stock, real estate and life insurance.

Step 3: Choose the Type of Fund

A wide variety of funds are available. The staff will help you select the fund type that best fits your needs and priorities.

Step 4: Choose a name

Most of our funds are named for the donor, the donor's family, or a loved one. The fund may also remain anonymous.

“Everyone can do something extraordinary.”

What does it mean when you give?

By giving through the Springfield Foundation, you join generations of Clark County residents who have made a difference through their philanthropy. Since 1948, families, individuals, and businesses have entrusted us with their charitable giving.

We offer a variety of fund options and planned giving strategies to help you realize your charitable goals – both during your lifetime and as your lasting legacy. While their interests vary, our donors find great value in the stewardship, personal attention, and financial benefits we offer.

As a community foundation, we build, invest, and distribute an endowment dedicated to improving the quality of life in Clark County for everyone.

We also engage the community in addressing issues of shared concern through advocacy, program initiatives, and public awareness.

No matter what causes or charities you support, we can help you make an impact.

Putting your fund to work

Creating a fund is just the beginning. Each fund generates income that is used to provide support to nonprofit organizations in our community. Grants are made on behalf of our donors, at the suggestion of the donor, or through a discretionary grant process. We act as a conduit; bringing together individuals who wish to support an organization with those providing the service to the community.
